

Council for Learning Resources in Colleges

CoLRiC is an independent organisation working with library and learning resources centre managers in further education and sixth form colleges to enhance and maintain excellence in their services

About CoLRiC

CoLRiC was founded in 1993 and has since produced a number of very successful initiatives that help raise the quality of learning resources services in colleges. These include the CoLRiC peer accreditation scheme and the CoLRiC Beacon Award. Membership has grown to over 200 college learning resources services throughout the United Kingdom and Ireland.

Membership of CoLRiC

Who may join?

Membership of CoLRiC is open to any further education or sixth form college in the United Kingdom and Ireland. If you are not working in a further education or sixth form college, it may be possible to become an individual member.

Why join?

- All staff of member colleges benefit from CoLRiC's networking opportunities: lively email forum, members' area of the CoLRiC website, and beneficial rates for CoLRiC events.
- Share excellent practice through our regular newsletter, the resources on our website, and best practice and beacon awards.
- Take part in CoLRiC's annual performance and impact indicators survey and regular sixth form and FE college surveys and share the findings to help with comparison and benchmarking.
- Member colleges may register for CoLRiC's Peer Accreditation Scheme.

Through your subscription and involvement in CoLRiC activities, you support CoLRiC's work to enhance and maintain excellence in college library and learning resources services.
